What The Heck is This?

It's a zine.
Short for magazine.
I always loved the DIY look of the UK punk rock fanzines of the late 70s. Pin Headz look was inspired by that.

Why a Zine?

I got the idea after picking up a copy of the Seattle pinball zine, Skill Shot.

The goal of this project is to help promote pinball and tournaments in the greater Cincinnati area.

How You Can Help

I can't do this alone.
I need help on all fronts. Art, distribution, folding, writing, editing, etc.
If you are interested in helping or have suggestions, I want to hear from you.

Who am I?

I am Chad Hobbs.
A local pinballer, designer, editor, and videographer.
IFPA #40613.

They had 27 players in the first event. Mike Dawn, who was ranked 21st in KY won. He received 17.59 WPPR points moving him up to 15th in KY. Chad Hobbs, who was ranked 16th in KY, won the second event. This combined with a 3rd place finish in the first event moved him up to 9th in the state. Both winners plan on playing in the KY state championship Jan 18th at Zanzabar.

It was 9 fair strikes format. Rounds alternated between a bank of OLD and NEW games.

It's WPPR (World Pinball Player Ranking) points season. That last minute drive for points to qualify for the IFPA state championships. So why play one when you can... PLAY TWO!

The top 16 KY point earners are eligible to play in the KY SCS. This double header was held in Independence, KY at Erik Wurtzberger's house.
