

Pin Headz

The Greater Cincinnati Pinball Zine

#8 August 2020 Free!

SUBS $2 A month
for the LE

$1/mo standard edition

venmo @pinheadz

Greetings and welcome to August. I am keeping the number of Limited Edition (LE) zines at 50. Way less work for me, and more rare and collectable for you! Haha. We are up to 7 subscribers. This is not counting people who won free subs or a few friends, family and industry types that also get the zine. I mailed out over 20 this month. Each with a personalized note and a unique hand drawn head on each envelope. I also included some tiny Pin Headz stickers I made using label paper.

I've been working on designs for some real screen printed vinyl stickers. So that is also on the way. I've also been known to put other random stuff in the subscribers envelopes. Random stickers, baseball cards, etc. I also use vintage stamps to mail them.

Skill Shot?

When plunging the ball many games offer a skill shot. There are a few different types of shots. Many involve skillfully plunging the ball into a specific target. Others challenge you to quickly get the ball to the flippers and hit a shot or series of shots. The value of skill shots vary wildly from game to game. Often newer players ignore these shots. But I think they are almost always important. It's usually a low risk opportunity at a few free points. And I've seen many games decided by just a few points.

Many games have markings you can use to measure your plunge. Pick a part of the plunger to use as a marker. This will allow you to measure the strength of the plunge.

Details on a game's skill shot will often be included on the instructions card on the left side of the games apron. Skill Shot is also the name of an awesome pinball zine from Seattle.

PINBALL IS BACK!

(well sorta)

BC's Bottle Lodge in Montgomery is open but games are not on. Same for Brewdog downtown and Canal St in Dayton.

MOTR Pub and PINS mechanical are still closed.

Cincy League

Congrats to Erik Wurtenberger for winning Cincy League
last month.

Cincy League has 32 players, but only 24 were able to make the finals. The finals had been scheduled for back in April but were postponed due to Covid-19. They finally got to play at Larry and Phoebe's house on July 25th. Erik had to beat Larry Scott and Larry Smith back to back to win it. This was Erik's second time winning the League. Mallory Patrick won B division and Chris Samples won C.

Live Trivia

Pinball Trivia

Tuesday Aug 11th – 9pm

This is going to be the last trivia game for a while.

These are a ton of work to setup and run. I'll bring them back once I figure out how to streamline production of the games.

Hope to get a big crowd. Still offering a cash prize for the winner. We use myquiz.org and Google Meet. See the Facebook event for more details.
