This month is General Trivia August 17th at 8pm ET on the twitch.tv PinHeadz channel. I play pinball from 8-9pm and trivia starts at 9pm. The game takes about 45min. Free to play. Open to all. Winner gets a 6-month subscription to Pin Headz.

JULY Tourn

The delayed Led Zeppelin Launch Party happened at Arcade Legacy: Bar Edition on July 2nd. 29 people played. Chad Hobbs and Jesse Baker battled to a tie, with Chad winning a one-ball tie breaker.

The NKY Open is one of my favorite tournaments of the year. Erik Wurtenberger hosted this event on July 10th at his home in Independence, KY. 32 people competed. The top 16 made A finals and the remaining in B finals. Bill Walborn won A division and Deborah Tahlman won B division.

The Avengers: Infinity Quest launch party was also delayed due to covid, but finally happened on July 17th. 29 players competed for cash and a plaque from Stern. Carlos “Laser LOS” DeLaSerda from Columbus, OH took home the win. This may have been his first win in Cincinnati.

What the Flip ran their second monthly tournament at Wondercade, a new arcade in Westwood. The format was Flipper Frenzy which involves playing two-player games in a continuous manner vs, a set number of rounds. After a slow start Willy Allen won his last six games in a row putting him into first place.

WPPRs Are Back

Starting this month pinball tournaments can once again be sanctioned by the International Flipper

Pinball Association (IFPA).

This means players can start earning World Pinball Player Ranking (WPPR) points. These points determine a player's rank against all other players in the world. They also help determine who is qualified to play in yearly regional IFPA championships.

Winners of these tournaments qualify to play in a yearly national championship, which are followed by the IFPA

World Championships. The first local IFPA sanctioned tournament will be a Double

Header at Arcade Legacy in Newport on Sunday August 15.
