Pincinnati

Pincinnati is being held on December 2-4th, once again at the Eastgate Holiday Inn. Book your room today as promotional rates end on November 8th. Pinball tournaments, vendors, distributors and over 120 pinball machines on free play. Buy your tickets in advance before Nov 21st and save at pincinnati.com. Ticket prices at the door will be $20-30 for the day or $65 for the weekend. And if you can't make it, some of the tournaments will be streamed live on Twitch at twitch.tv/SDTMPinball.

Road Trip

My first pinball show was the Chicago Pinball Expo way back in 2007. I went with my first pinball buddy Jason Cosman who I'd just met earlier that year at the Bonnaroo music festival in TN. I didn't make it back to this show until this year, 15 years later. I only had time to go on Thursday but I did get to play in the pre Expo tournament at Enterrium with 99 other players. Andy Bagwell ran the event and won the event! I finished tied for 6th and got almost 19 WPPRs (my most ever) and $78 in cash.

Expo is like a pinball trade show. I saw lots of people networking, talking about collabs, social media, content creation, streaming and more. I got to meet Zac AJ and Ron Hallett who are a couple of Pin Headz top pinball trivia players. Rob Berk is the owner of Expo and also owner of many of the games at Expo. The games ranged from 1930s to modern games. My favorites were the games I've never seen before and there was a ton of them. I finally got to play the rare Punchy the Clown and yes, it was as bad as people say. But overall it was an outstanding mix of games.
